WLA 75 Structure of the PWP

WLA 75. Bill for a World Legislative Act

Structure and Function of Provisional World Government

Relation between the provisional world parliament, the Presidium, the executive cabinet, the commissions and Organs, departments and agencies of the Provisional World Government

Considering:

That the Constitution for the Federation of the Earth establishes, in article 19, all the elements necessary to define the precise structure of the Provisional Government, as shown in the attachment (Aspects of the Earth Constitution Related to the Structure of the Provisional World Government);

The delegates of the 16th Session of the Provisional World Parliament proclaim the following law:

Structure of the Provisional World Government

Article 1. In accordance with Article 19, the structure and organs of the Provisional World Government is as follows:

1. The ongoing Provisional World Parliament will be the highest authority, which it exercises through legislation, regulation, approving budgets, organizing, appointing and dismissing officials and management control.

2. The Presidium to the Provisional World Parliament, will serve as the highest executive authority for the PWP, under the orders of Parliament. The Parliament shall meet online at least 3 times per year (as called by the Presidium) after the Permanent Secretariat has been activated.

a. In order to perform the ongoing work of Provisional World Government, the Parliamentary Presidium will have a Permanent Secretariat, to which it will delegate administrative functions, but not authority.

3. As feasible, the Presidium shall create the Executive Branch Presidium and Executive Cabinet of the Executive Branch of the PWG, the Operational part of the Executive, under the authority of the Parliamentary Presidium and ultimately the Parliament itself.

4. Preparatory Commissions, created by the World Parliament, and operate under the coordination of the Parliamentary Presidium (as in the diagram below). The Presidium will work to coordinate these five commissions and coordinate their activities for maximum effect in moving the world toward ratification of the Earth Constitution.

5. Four of the Commissions specified in Article 19 of the Constitution are hereby activated for continuing work after the conclusion of this session of Parliament: The Ratification Commission, the World Elections and Boundaries Administration (WEAB), the Finance Commission, and the Earth Emergency Rescue Administration (EERA).

6. In addition to the several Commissions and Administrations specified for activation at this session of the PWP, a new Commission shall be established that will promote and organize a 5th World Constituent Assembly in accordance with the directives set forth at PWP16 and a new Commission for the Unity of World Federalist Organizations. Several Committees are also established, which begin to function but do not have the voting states of a Commission or Administration. The role of the Presidium is to coordinate and empower the Commissions and Administrations. Nevertheless, the Permanent Secretariat shall be run by the Secretariat Council, consisting of the 5 members of the Presidium and one vote each from the activated Commissions and Administrations (the committee have a voice in deliberations but not a vote).

7. Membership in these Commissions or Administrations shall be nominated by the Commission leaders under the guidance of the Parliament and elected to membership by the PWP. Commission leaders shall endeavor to build teams and solicit funding to empower their teams for their respective missions.

8. Recompense for work as heads of Commissions or as members of the Presidium may be compensated as the PWP decides according as its future budgets may allow. However, there need not be any compensation if budgeting does not allow for this. 7. Organs, departments, agencies (articles 17.3.10 and 17.3.12), created by the World Parliament in coordination with the World Executive, and operates under the coordination by the World Executive and is responsible to the Parliament and its Presidium.

Provisional World Parliament (PWP)

Presidium of the PWP (5 persons) plus a Chair for each of the following:

Ratification Commission

Earth Emergency Rescue Administration

Finance Commission

Legislative Review Commission

World Boundaries and Elections Administration

World Peace and Disarmament Commission

Commission for Uniting World Federalist Organizations

Youth Committee
Education Committee

Article 2. As stated in article 19.5.8, in all of its work and activities, the Provisional World

Government shall function in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution for the Federation of Earth.